

AGUINALDO SLIPS THROUGH LINES

Rebel Leader and Escort Flying Over Mountains Toward Boyabong.

YOUNG IS IN PURSUIT

Last Remnant of Insurgents Consists of 200 Men, Women and Children.

In the Opinion of the Military Authorities the Escape of Aguinaldo Means the Changing of the Seat of War to the Northern Part of the Island of Luzon—Rebellion Will End at Boyabong.

Manila, Nov. 22.—[Special Cablegram]—A report from Gen. Young commanding the cavalry troop in pursuit of Aguinaldo has been received. It took two days for the dispatch to reach San Jose from which place it was telegraphed to Manila.

Gen. Young says that Aguinaldo with 200 men, women and children was at Aringay, north of San Fabian, Monday, and would try to cross the mountains north of Boyabong. Gen. Young with his cavalry and Col. Batson's Macabees are in close pursuit.

Aguinaldo Has Escaped

Manila, Nov. 21.—[Special Cablegram]—Aguinaldo has escaped between Gens. Young and Wheaton. Gen. Young is pushing toward Boyabong.

Manila, Nov. 22.—The military officials here fear that Aguinaldo has been successful in giving Gens. MacArthur, Wheaton and Lawton the slip, and that he is now in the northern part of the island. They also fear that he has succeeded in taking with him a good-sized army, together with the great part of the artillery which the insurgents are known to have had.

In the opinion of the military authorities the escape of the insurgent leader means the changing of the seat of war to the northern part of the island.

Officers and soldiers arriving at Cabanatuan from Gen. Lawton's force describe the campaign as one of great hardships. Many men are dropping out, sick were left at various towns without adequate supplies and attendance, some of them making their way back across the terrible roads. A number of horses were dying and many of the soldiers and even some of the officers were marching on, half-naked, their clothes having been torn to pieces in getting through the jungles.

Some of them were reduced almost to breechcloths and hundreds were barefooted, their shoes having been worn out, and all were living on any sort of provisions. Bread was rare and carabao meat and bananas were the staples. Gen. Lawton foresaw that the campaign would involve such hardships, but he considered it the quickest and cheapest way of ending the war.

It is believed the Americans have succeeded north to receive the American prisoners from the Filipinos.

Heavy Skirmish Reported By Gen. Otis Northeast of Jaro.

Washington, Nov. 22.—[Special Telegram]—Gen. Otis confirms the news dispatch of Gen. Young being in pursuit of Aguinaldo and adds that the rebel leader is considerably in advance. Gen. Otis also says:

"Proportions of Lawton's troops are being pushed through to Tayug with rations for a battalion of the Twenty-fourth, will join Lawton tomorrow. Nothing has been heard from Wheaton several days. The wire from Tarlac north is not working. Troops on the entire railroad line are being rationed without difficulty. 'Hilo reports that seven companies of the Sixth and Twenty-sixth struck the insurgents northeast of Jaro; casualties six wounded. The enemy left eighteen dead on the field. Seven prisoners were captured, four one pound brass pieces and several thousands rounds of ammunition.

The Eighteenth Infantry yesterday drove the insurgents north on the Santa Barbara."

Drinks of Wine.

The British consumption of wine per head of population is not half a gallon. The French, being wine-makers, naturally drink more of the beverage of their own country—twenty-nine and one-half gallons per head. The Germans, also wine-makers, but on a comparatively small scale, drink a little over a gallon per head. Germany consumes nearly two gallons of spirits per head, and the United Kingdom only one. Belgium is the biggest consumer of spirits per head, the consumption there being a trifle higher than in Germany.

REED FOR A GOLD STANDARD

Remarkable Speech Made by Ex-Speaker in New York Last Night

New York, Nov. 22.—"The next congress should declare for a gold standard." That was the keynote of a remarkable speech made by Thomas Brackett Reed, former speaker of the United States house of representatives last night at the annual banquet of the New York chamber of commerce at Delmonico's. Mr. Reed did not bandy words, and came out unequivocally for a gold monetary basis as the one thing which would insure a solid foundation for the government machinery. He declared that the coming congress should deal with the subject to a finality. His speech was the feature of the night, and his fearless demand for a gold basis was loudly applauded.

CITY OF PATERSON DRESSED IN CREPE

MOURNING IN NEW JERSEY OVER HOBART'S DEATH

Funeral Will Take Place Next Saturday Afternoon at 2 p. m.—President McKinley, Members of the Cabinet, Supreme Court Judges and Other Officials Will Attend.

Pateron, N. J., Nov. 22.—[Special Telegram]—The streets of the city today present a sombre appearance. Public and private buildings are alike dressed in crepe in honor of the late vice president. Attorney General Griggs, who arrived last night from Washington, was the first caller at the Carroll house, Hobart family home, this morning. A tender by the city council of the city hall, wherein the body might lie in state, was declined. Instead it was decided to open the Carroll house on Friday between ten and six o'clock.

The Rev. Dr. McGee, pastor of the Hobart family, will conduct the funeral service on Saturday at two o'clock in the afternoon. The services will be held in the Church of the Redeemer and the interment in Cedar Lawn cemetery.

Will Attend Hobart's Funeral

Washington, Nov. 22.—Vice-President Hobart's funeral on Saturday will be attended by the president and his cabinet, the Supreme court, the senate in a body and a large committee from the house of representatives, besides many other high dignitaries of the government, who will journey to Paterson to pay their last tribute of respect to his memory.

DEATH ENDS MRS. WOOD'S SUFFERING

PIONEER RESIDENT DIED THIS AFTERNOON.

Has Resided in Janesville For Many Years—Attended All Souls Church—Operation Was Performed at Palmer Hospital Last Saturday—Was Well Known Throughout County.

Mrs. Royal Wood died at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Palmer Memorial hospital. The cause of her demise was bowel trouble as operation having been performed last Saturday.

By the death of Mrs. Wood this city loses one of its earliest settlers and a woman who made the world better by her living.

She was born in New York City and was married in Chicago. Coming to Wisconsin in the early forties Mr. and Mrs. Wood located in Janesville where they have since resided. Mrs. Wood for several years has been troubled with her eyes and ears.

A few weeks ago she was taken ill with bowel trouble and growing gradually worse she was removed to the Palmer Memorial hospital.

A consultation of physicians was held last Saturday and an operation followed. Her condition showed improvement at first. Yesterday her condition took a sudden turn and gradually she grew weaker.

Mrs. Wood was nearly eighty years of age. She was once a member of All Souls church and for years has resided at 55 Cornelia street.

A husband and three sons are left. The sons are Wesley Wood, Chicago; Royal Wood, Santiago, California, and Frank Wood, Janesville. The remains will be interred in Oak Hill cemetery.

Earthquakes.

Some years ago Commander Morrison, an officer of the British navy, who foretold from the stars the civil war in this country, formulated the following rules for predicting earthquakes. These conditions are about to be fulfilled, and according to him we may look for mother earth to become restless. 1. Earthquakes generally follow close on the heels of eclipses. 2. At the time of the earthquake many aspects will be found between the planets in the heavens; also as regards the places of the planets at the previous eclipse. 3. Earthquakes generally happen when there are several planets on or near the tropics or equator. 4. Earthquakes happen more frequently when there are planets, especially Uranus, Saturn, Jupiter or Mars, in the sign Taurus or Scorpio.

DEWEY HOME GOES TO ADMIRAL'S SON

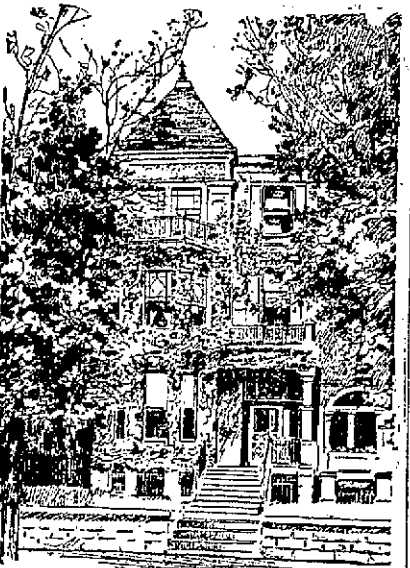

PAPERS FILED RETRANSFERRING THE PEOPLE'S GIFT.

Mr. Dewey Feels Very Indignant Over the Way He Has Been Treated in the Affair—His Son Was to Be Recipient of All Benefits Finally.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—[Special Telegram]—This morning Mrs. George Dewey, wife of the admiral of the navy, transferred to George Dewey, Jr., the admiral's son by his first wife, title of ownership in the now famous gift house on Rhode Island avenue. The deed was duly recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds. When the property was yesterday transferred by the admiral to his wife the people were angry. This new juggle with the ownership of the gift house made them laugh.

Dewey's Secretary Explains

This morning Mr. Crawford, the admiral's official secretary, declined to explain the matter. He said it had been the intention of the admiral from the first to transfer the property first to his wife and through her to his son.

Mr. Crawford did not say so, but some people imagine young George, just to show that he is not to be outdone in this style of sentimental generosity, will now proceed to deed the house back to his father, and thus everyone will be happy and the property will at last remain in the name of the man for whom it was intended by the donors.

Mr. Dewey Expresses Indignation.

Mr. Dewey talked freely to reporters on the matter last night. "The Admiral expressed the keenest regret, indignation, sorrow and resentment at the manner in which the information that he has deeded his home to his wife has been received by the American people. He said that he had never experienced such a trying time as the present one and that he did not believe it was possible that the American people should so misunderstand and ill-treat him. At times his voice grew so husky that his words were scarcely distinguishable.

All Was to Go to His Son George.

"It pains me very deeply," he said, "to feel that I am compelled to lay upon the secrets of my domestic life; but, in view of the insults which I have received at the hands of writers of letters which have been published today, I feel justified in somewhat overstepping the bounds of propriety and say that Mrs. Dewey understood better than I did the feelings of the people and at first declined to permit the house to be transferred to her. She did consent only after an arrangement had been effected whereby not only the house, which was the gift to me from the American people, but her entire personal fortune, which, as you are aware, is considerable, were ultimately to go to my son George."

INSIDIOUS ATTACK ON DEWEY

John R. McLean Denounces Certain Hidden Political Foes

Washington, Nov. 22.—[Special Telegram]—John R. McLean, brother-in-law of Admiral Dewey, in speaking of the transfer of the Dewey house, said this morning:

"It was simply an act of courtesy, which the admiral thought would be agreeable to Mrs. Dewey, and which would delight both her and his son. The criticism of the admiral has been inspired by certain persons, who for well known reasons have little love for the admiral. It is an insidious attack upon this representative American by hidden political foes. I believe that this attack, started so insidiously, will soon become open, and have no doubt that the American people, who always love fair play, will resent those unjust and injurious attacks upon Dewey in a way which will not be soon forgotten by those responsible for the criticism."

Diphtheria in Beloit.

Beloit, Wis., Nov. 22.—The diphtheria cases continue about the same in number, but there have only been two deaths. There have been twenty cases reported, and new cases develop about as fast as patients recover.

GOEBEL CONCEDES HE IS DEFEATED

REPUBLICANS SURE OF GOVERNOR IN KENTUCKY.

Goebel Has Concluded to Abide by Decision of Kentucky Election Commission and Turn His Attention to United States Senatorship—Has Control of Legislature.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 22.—It is stated today on authority that cannot be questioned that Goebel has decided to abide by the decision of the state election committee and that the Goebelites will not make a motion to throw out the vote of Louisville. Goebel concedes that on the face of the returns he is defeated and that the state board will be forced to award the certificate of election to Taylor.

Louisville Election Commissioner Caruth said that there had been no notice of contest filed with his board and that the statement that the board would upon reconvening this afternoon resolve itself into a contest board was a mistake.

Goebel May Be Senator.

This settles all talk of throwing out Evansville. On the other hand, Goebel will control the legislature and name the next United States senator. Goebel's plan is to run ex-Senator Blackburn for congress in the special election to be held in the Ashland District, December 8, to fill the unexpired term of the late Evan E. Settle and if he wins then Goebel will step in and take the United States senatorship. It is said the agreement with Blackburn further provides that Blackburn shall receive the support of Kentucky and also Ohio through John R. McLean's influence for the democratic nomination for vice president.

Guards Are All Republicans.

Governor Bradley is taking precautions to prevent Goebel being secretly sworn in as governor and it was announced today that the entire state militia had been weeded out, and only republicans were now on the muster rolls.

The official count of Louisville today gives Taylor a plurality of 3,401. It was stated by a Goebel democrat high in power that Goebel and Blackburn have known from the first that they were defeated, but only made the fight at the solicitation of William J. Bryan, who held that to give up the fight would be sounding the death knell of his candidacy for the presidency, since he had been one of the chief issues in Kentucky.

TWO MORE STUDENTS ARE SUSPENDED

FIFTEEN IN ALL EXPELLED FROM STATE UNIVERSITY.

Hallowe'en Pranks Will Not Be So Loud at Madison Hereafter—Pink-eye at Oshkosh—Killed by a Deer Hunter—Gather Mayflowers at Marinette.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 22.—Two more university students were last night added to the list of those suspended for participation in the Hallowe'en raid on Ladies' hall. This makes fifteen students who have been suspended for taking part in the affair and there are half a dozen still under suspicion by the general faculty.

Pinkeye Prevails At Oshkosh.

Oshkosh, Wis., Nov. 22.—Pinkeye is epidemic among horses here and there have been several fatal cases one horse dropping dead in the street. There is considerable alarm, as this city has suffered from this dangerous and deadly equine plague before. In 1871 so many horses were laid up or died that mules and oxen were pressed into service. There is fear that the disease may cause a heavy loss.

Monument for Chief Oshkosh.

Oshkosh, Wis., Nov. 22.—The recent craze for things Indian has revived an interest in old Chief Oshkosh, after whom the city is named, and it is thought the movement to erect a monument in his honor, which was started some years ago, will again be taken up.

Killed by a Deer Hunter.

Escanaba, Mich., Nov. 22.—The body of a young Swede named Christenson was found in the road near a farming settlement near here Monday morning. A hunter had evidently mistaken him for a deer and shot him in the right leg, causing him to bleed to death.

Mayflowers in Marinette.

Marinette, Wis., Nov. 22.—Children have been picking Mayflowers, trees and lilac bushes are budding and dandelions are sprouting on the lawns. This unusual phenomena of nature known only in the spring is observable in Marinette this fall and has never before been known here.

Got a Heavy Prison Sentence.

Menominee, Mich., Nov. 22.—Thomas Goederd was sentenced this morning to twenty-five years in the Branch State prison on being convicted of criminal assault upon an aged woman of Wilson, this county. Goederd is a German, 33 years old, and has a wife and four children on a homestead near where the crime was committed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Selleck of St. Paul, Minn., are here on account of their mother's illness.

SHE WILL INHERIT $1,000,000

Young Woman of Stevens Point Has An Offer of a Fortune.

Stevens Point, Wis., Nov. 22.—The 18-year-old daughter of a retired farmer, Thomas Smith, has been chosen as heiress to $1,000,000. Miss Smith's grand uncle, Richard Smith, a wealthy business man of Glasgow, Scotland, has signed a contract to settle $1,000,000 on Miss Smith when she arrives twenty-one years of age in consideration of her going to Glasgow to live with the old gentleman to brighten his last years. She will go to Glasgow in August. She will graduate from the local high school in June. Her uncle is ninety-two years old. Mr. Smith is now visiting in this country in Chicago and Elroy, Wis.

TALK OF ROOSEVELT FOR VICE PRESIDENT

NEW YORKER MAY BE MCKINLEY'S RUNNING MATE IN 1900.

He Does Not Want the Honor But May Defer to Popular Clamor to Accept the Nomination—Mention is Also Made of H. C. Payne, of Wisconsin.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The death of vice President Hobart has started the political gossip going on the probable running mate with McKinley in the presidential campaign next year. There is a sentimental expression in favor of Attorney General Griggs, who comes from the same state as the late vice president. It is believed, however, that the attorney general's expressions on the trust question would make him politically impossible in a campaign in which the trusts may form the predominant issue.

Aside from these two men it is believed that no member of the cabinet is politically available.

Many Favor Roosevelt

There is a notable sentiment among republican leaders not directly connected with the administration that Governor Roosevelt would be the strongest man for second place on the ticket.

They say that while he might not make a good vice president and almost certainly not a good presiding officer of the senate, the Rough Rider possesses the affections of the people to a degree that would make him a strong second to President McKinley, particularly in view of the general belief that Admiral Schley is being groomed for second place on the democratic ticket.

It is well understood that Governor Roosevelt does not want the place and is holding himself in reserve for 1904, but it is supposed that he would obey a general demand, especially if it were represented to him it was necessary to have an army hero to offset a naval one.

MR. H. C. PAYNE FOR SECOND PLACE

Mentioned As a Running Mate For President McKinley.

The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin of last night says:

"The possibility of Henry C. Payne becoming McKinley's running mate on the next republican presidential ticket was referred to frequently today by republicans who had heard of the death of vice president Hobart. Mr. Payne's name was prominently mentioned in connection with the position at the time of the last national convention, and it is believed by many that the next vice presidential candidate will be from the Middle West."

FAVOR A TWO-MILE CASH TAX

Southeastern Wisconsin Good Roads Association Meets at Racine

Racine, Wis., Nov. 22.—The Southeastern Wisconsin Good Roads Association held a meeting at the court house last night, the members of the Kenosha county board of supervisors and the Racine county board being present. It was decided that a 2 mill cash tax would be necessary and that a law to that effect should be passed by the legislature at the coming session. The meeting elected several vice presidents of the association.

Armored Train Out From Estcourt Makes Only a Short Exploring Run—Boers Capture 300 Blooded Horses—Valued at $15,000—Three Thousand More Red Jackets are Landed at Cape Town—Nauwpoort Has Been Retaken by the British.

Cape Town, Nov. 22.—[Special Cablegram]—The Boers are fortifying Belmont on the railroad below Kimberley, and are evidently preparing to resist the advance of General Methuen with a flying column of ten thousand men who are advancing for the relief of Kimberley. There are indications that the Boers have suspended operations along the southern Free State border with the design of concentrating about Kimberley. The news of the re-occupation of Nauwpoort by the British is received with satisfaction. This town is an important railway junction.

Cape Dutch Join the Boers

Cape Town, Nov. 22.—[Special Cablegram]—The Cape Dutch are undoubtedly joining the Boers in large numbers, and it is evident that the threatening proclamations of Buller and Milner have had the opposite effect from that intended on the high spirited Dutch farmers.

Boers Check Armored Train

Durban, Natal, Nov. 22.—[Special Cablegram]—An armored train headed for Estcourt was able to get only about a mile north of the Mooi river. The Boers have raided the Natal Stud Company's farm taking three hundred blooded horses, valued at fifteen thousand dollars.

Three Thousand Red Jackets Landed

Cape Town, Nov. 22.—[Special Cablegram]—The transport Kildonan Castle, the largest troopship in the world, has arrived here with three thousand men, including the First Welsh and Second Northumberland regiments.

Diversion of Cuban Girls.

An American girl who made a visit to Cuba recently was struck by the mild form of entertainments indulged in by the Cuban damsels. They have no games, she said, and bicycling is not considered proper except for extremely young girls. Dancing is one of the few pastimes in which they enjoy themselves, and concerts are always well attended by the young women, accompanied by their duennas. On Sunday afternoon the well-to-do Cuban takes his family for a drive around the Prado, when the women vie with each other in displaying the latest fashions.—New York Tribune.

European Bison.

It is not generally known that there is still living in Europe a large herd of European bison—larger, probably, than the herd of American bison which roams Yellowstone park. These rare animals are preserved by the czar of Russia in the imperial forest of Bielewice, in Lithuania, and number something like 700. Fourteen men have been sent to Siberia within the last three years for the offense of killing scattering animals.

WILL COST NO MORE TO RUN A CHEMICAL

FIRE POLICE PLAN WILL NOT INCREASE EXPENSE.

Paid Man Would be Provided by a Readjustment at No Advance Over Necessary Pay Rolls—Water Does as Much Damage as Fire—Business Men Favor Scheme.

The question of buying a chemical engine is now before the council committee on fire and water and the members will no doubt give it careful and thorough attention before reporting. The value of such an appliance ought not to be questioned, and no question is raised by those familiar with the service.

It is a well known fact that a great part—often times the greater part—of the loss by fire, especially in stores and dwellings, is caused by water. Firemen calculate that an ordinary single stream of water discharged three hundred gallons per minute—quite a flood. A chemical engine discharges only about ten gallons per minute. Three and sometimes four men are required to handle a stream of water, while with the chemical one man takes complete control, delivering the stream at the right spot, thus avoiding deluging the entire room or building.

No Additional Expense.

A chemical engine, such as it is proposed to buy, will not increase the expense of the fire department but will prove one of the very best innovations. The department exclusive of the Fire Police, consists of six full paid men and twelve "call" men. The "call" men are paid one hundred dollars a year. For some time past the department has been run with only six "call" men, but this force is deemed too light for efficiency. It is understood that three "call" men will soon be appointed making the force nine "call" members. It is said that in case the chemical engine is procured no more "call" members will be appointed until vacancies occur. Instead one of the nine call men will be advanced to the regular force, leaving four "call" men unappointed, thus saving $400 towards the pay of the extra paid men.

Saving in Salary.

The city now pays $85 per year for a substitute during the time the regular men are taking their vacations. The extra paid man would perform this service without crippling the department, making the saving $485. The Fire Police pay $150 a year for an extra driver for their present patrol wagon. This, also, would be saved, making $635, or more than is required to pay the proposed extra man. The expense of the apparatus, horses, etc., would be just the same as now.

With a strong team, such as will be procured in case the engine is purchased there is no place in the city which cannot be reached inside of ten minutes, thus giving very good fire protection to suburban property. At the same time the engine would be of inestimable value to property in the central district.

People Favor Plan.

The fact being established that such an apparatus will not increase the cost of the department there is no valid reason why it should not be bought. The Fire Police company is composed of some of Janesville's best citizens. The members are business men and they are unanimous in favor of the proposition. These men take much interest in the welfare of the department, and whenever occasion requires, cheerfully lend their services in aiding the other firemen in handling the hose. But for this fact it would be necessary to enroll a larger membership of paid men.

With these facts made clear the people generally will hope that the council will buy the engine, feeling assured that the expenditure will be one of the wisest ever made.

HAPPENINGS LAST EVENING

Two Dancing Parties and a Church Concert Was Held.

Members of St. Patrick's T. A. and B. society gave a dancing party last evening at Columbia hall that was attended by fifty couples. Tuckwood's orchestra of four pieces furnished excellent music and it was two o'clock when the guests dispersed.

At the First M. E. church last night the Canadian Jubilee Singers and Imperial orchestra gave a concert that was largely attended and much enjoyed.

At East Side Odd Fellows hall last evening the N. O. W. club gave one of their enjoyable dancing parties. Smith's orchestra played.

Twenty-five friends surprised the Misses Anna and Nellie Maloy of No. 10 Liberty street last evening. Cinch was played. The first prize fell to Miss Bessie Stanton and F. D. SPORTING NEWS

Madison, Wis., Nov. 22.—The Wisconsin football players are now realizing the effect of such a climax as the Yale game so early in the season. There can be no doubt that Wisconsin's terrific effort to get the much coveted prize of a victory over the Eastern invincibles has had a demoralizing effect over the entire season. The Badgers have been too close to the dazzling reward of a national conquest and they fought too hard at the start to keep up their ambitious for western victories. Such was the opinion of Manager Fisher of the Wisconsin team, and it seems that in that he has expressed the views of many others.

"The football season this year has been almost too long," said Mr. Fisher, referring to the work of the Badger eleven at Minneapolis, "and it shows what good stuff there is in our men. See how they have stuck it out so long. There are now really only two men in the team who are in first class condition. They all had to work hard from the very start and it is a question of whether they will last long enough to down their only opponent, Michigan. Drivers' leg is in bad shape. Poole's knee may keep him out of the game and Cochems and Wilmarth are not in trim."

It is feared that Cochems will have more than his match in the Michigan game; Neil Snow is considered by many as the best in the west. The faculty may be persuaded to allow Larson to play in the Thanksgiving game. It seems quite certain that Tratt will play at quarter-back and Wilmarth and Peale at halves. If Comstock and Chamberlain play it may change the line-up somewhat. Over 1,000 rooters will go to Chicago on Thanksgiving day, and it is expected from the interest taken in the Windy City this year that there will be over 12,000 people on the ground.

The huge demonstration of interest in sporting in the west and especially the attendance of so large a number as 35,000 at the Yale-Harvard game, have a telling effect on the contest for the western championship. The Michigan-Wisconsin game will start at 11 a. m. on Thanksgiving day, rain or shine, cold or warm. The railroads have never offered such low rates to the football managers as this year, and no doubt that will contribute largely to the patronage.

FLETCHER-BROWN WEDDING

Was Performed Last Evening at the Home of the Bride's Parents.

Surrounded by relatives and friends to the number of seventy-five Miss Elita Brown and John L. Fletcher were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony last evening. The ceremony was performed at the Wisconsin street home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brown at 8 o'clock, the Rev. W. A. Hall, pastor of Court Street M. E. church, officiating.

There was no bride's maid or best man it being the desire of the interested parties to make the wedding as unelaborate as possible. After the extending of most hearty congratulations the serving of a well prepared repast followed.

Both bride and groom are well known in Janesville. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown and is a graduate of the class of '92 of the Janesville High school. She is a prominent worker in the Court street church and is a young lady esteemed by all who know her.

The groom is the junior partner in the east side grocery firm of Fletcher Bros. and is a young man who possesses the facilities that go to make the successful business man.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher have gone to housekeeping in a cozy furnished home on Park street, where the best of wishes from a host of friends will follow them.

MASONIC MEMBERS GIVEN A SURPRISE

CALLED ON TO SETTLE BACK ASSESSMENTS.

Name of the Company Was Formerly The Northwestern Masonic Aid Association of Chicago—Several Members in This City—J. L. Croft Was Their Local Representative.

Several prominent business men in Janesville are today considerably worried over the receipt of letters from the Northwestern Life Assurance company of Chicago, notifying them that they are behind in their dues to the Northwestern Masonic Aid association. This Masonic association is now out of business and has been for some time. Following is the letter received:

"Having been a member of the Northwestern Masonic Aid association, now the Northwestern Life Assurance company, you are aware that assessments for losses were always made after the loss or liability had accrued against the company. Upon examining the books of the company we find that you were assessed as your proportionate share of the losses for which that assessment was made. That prior to the date of the lapsing of your policy death claims had accrued and which were subsequently paid by the company, aggregating $416,000.

"The proportion due from you for the payment of these latter claims is $—, making on the basis upon which the other members of your class are assessed, and in accordance with your contract, the total amount due from you to the company, $—, as your proportion towards the payment of the claims aggregating $721,000, all of which accrued prior to the lapsing of your policy, and while your insurance was in force.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

An audience representing the intelligence and culture of Janesville, gathered at Myers opera house last night to witness the performance of "Macbeth" with Madam Modjeska cast in the role of the ambitious and bloodthirsty Lady Macbeth. The great gathering was not demonstrative and was chary of applause; yet it was thoroughly interested and in rapport with the excellent presentation of Shakespeare's wonderful play. There were over 100 people, citizens and students of Beloit present and they were warm in their praise of the entire performance.

Madam Modjeska is nearing the point where physical debility attendant upon age will prevent her further appearance on the boards, but she still, at times, displays the fire and magnetism of her prime. At these times the auditor can easily comprehend why it is that she has won fame and fortune on the mimic stage. Her acting last night was indifferent, though still pleasing and correct in form, until the sleep walking chamber scenes in the fourth and fifth acts when the old Modjeska appeared in all her glory and even the accent disappeared under the intense and artistic delivery.

John E. Kallard gave the difficult part of "Macbeth" well and the rest of the cast was passing good.

Mr. George S. Spencer, son of B. C. Spencer of Milwaukee, who has many relatives and friends in Janesville, was cast for the part of Malcolm, the King's son, and acquitted himself well. He gives promise of becoming an artist in his chosen profession.

Modjeska went to Madison today, where she appears tonight, and the next three nights she will appear at the Davidson in Milwaukee.

The advance sale of seats for Bob Fitzsimmons' vaudeville company commenced at the box office this morning. Fitz is said to be carrying a first-class vaudeville company this season and the show tomorrow night will be worth seeing.

A theatrical engagement toward which many are looking with pleasure is Hoyt's "A Milk White Flag" company which will be seen in this city on Monday evening, Dec. 4th.

Puerto Rico.

Three tours of the beautiful island of Puerto Rico are scheduled to leave Chicago January 11, February 15, and March 8. Special Pullman sleeping and dining cars will convey the party to New York, thence on board the splendid new steamships Ponce and San Juan, through and around the island by rail, automobile, carriage and boat.

Tickets include all expenses everywhere. These select limited parties will be under the special escort of Mr. Walter Boyd Townsend under the management of The American Tourist association, Reau Campbell General Manager, 1423 Marquette Building, Chicago.

Itineraries, maps and tickets can be had on application to the agents of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry.

GOVERNMENT CIGAR LICENSE

Local Dealers May Be Compelled to Pay $40 a Year.

It is said that a new revenue law will go into effect January 1, which will compel all retailers of cigars to pay a license of $40 per year. This will have the effect of reducing the number of retailers to a great extent, as many will not be able to pay this amount of revenue.

Local cigar dealers stated today that they knew of no such law. Two of the leading dealers said that they favored such a plan, as it would drive many of the grocery stores, barber shops and drug stores out of the business.

EVENTS FOR THIS EVENING

Numerous attractions are scheduled for the local public.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN.

North Johnstown, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Francis Babcock of Waukegan, who formerly resided in this place died Sunday and her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery here Wednesday after a brief funeral service at the home of her mother, Mrs. Laura Shumway, Rev. A. Longfield officiating. She leaves a husband and adopted daughter, Floy, a mother, two brothers and four sisters, besides a large circle of other relatives and friends. Mrs. Thomas Rice who has been sick for three months past was taken suddenly worse a few days ago, and is failing fast. All hope of her recovery has been abandoned and her death would not be a surprise at any time. Mr. and Mrs. W. Pierce of De Kalb, Ill., were here to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Babcock, and remained to visit with friends until the first of this week. Frank Wheeler and wife of Whitewater were at F. E. Rice's Sunday.

The weather was all that could have been desired for the quarterly meeting which closed Sunday evening. There was a good attendance especially at the Sunday services, which were interesting and profitable. Among those in attendance from abroad were Rev. E. E. Evans and Arthur Snell of Oakland, Rev. C. Miner, Mrs. Greutinger, A. W. Cary's family, F. H. Peebles, Misses Mamie More and Florence Dennis of Evansville, Mr. and Mrs. Gussaulus and N. Doan of Rutland and Rev. Mary Kimball of Janesville. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Powers of Rock Prairie called on relatives here Monday. Mrs. E. R. Osborn returned from Evansville Wednesday. Conrad Gerber who formerly resided here was on our streets Monday. Dr. Clayton Rice of Palmyra and doctors R. H. and F. A. Rice of Delevan have been in almost constant attendance upon their mother Mrs. T. E. Rice for several days past. Mr. J. Bowen of Milton, was a caller in this place Monday.

WEST PORTER.

West Porter, Nov. 22.—The farmers are much pleased with the fine November weather and hope for it to continue. Many were disappointed last week because they couldn't see the meteoric shower. Some from this way attended the firemen's dance at Evansville last night. We understand that Hapso J. Luth is going to give up his milk route the first of next month and Fred Brunell is going to take it. Mr. and Mrs. E. Towne and Mr. Towne's sister, Annie Towne passed through here Saturday on their way to Albany where they expect to remain over Sunday with relatives. Mrs. Ella Coggins and Mrs. L. Griggs spent the forepart of the week at their brother's, F. J. Pierce's. Tuesday they left for a several weeks' visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barnard expect to go to Ohio next week for a visit with relatives. Mr. Barnard intends going to Pennsylvania before they return home.

Munsing Plated Underwear...

T'S ON TOP...

We have sold this well known Underwear for several years and the sale of it is constantly increasing.

The "Munsing" is made in such a way that the worsted appears on both surfaces, the lisle being completely covered, hence the word "plated."

This plating process which is peculiar to the Munsing Underwear, produces a fabric having the feeling of wool and the durability of cotton, handsome in appearance, and of so fine a texture that persons with the most sensitive skins can wear it without irritation.

People who cannot wear all-wool underwear find the "Munsing" just the thing. We have Women's Vests and Pants at 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50. Union Suits at $1.00, $1.50, $1.75, $2.50 and $3.00. Misses' Vests and Pants, 50 cents—Suits, $1.00.

No other Corsets that we have ever sold have given such satisfaction as the W. C. C. Corsets.

We have them to fit any figure—short, medium, long, extra long. W. C. C. corset waists are popular. W. C. C. abdominal corsets, the best. The Dowager for stout figures is the greatest value in corset. Women who are wearing the Dowager are well pleased.

THE CHINA CLOSET.

WHAT ONE CAN DO IN THE WAY OF SATISFACTORILY FILLING IT.

Inexpensive Ware in the Styles of the More Costly—Exquisitely Tinted Glass—Beautiful Cabinets and "Cup Sticks."

A set of china ranges from 125 pieces to 140 and more. The extra pieces, however, generally comprise individual butter plates and other small wares. When the china closet is to be filled with inexpensive ware, "blue and white" is the usual resource, and a very satisfactory one it is. But there are others, as may be learned from the following in The Household, which also illustrates a handsome china closet:

In higher priced china there is the Carlton ware, which sells as high as $400 or $500 a set, but it is beautiful beyond compare.

A set of Wedgwood china may be had for about half the price of the former, while the real Haviland china can be bought for from $50 to $100 a set. Less expensive china may be had from $25 to $50 a set, and in porcelain ware some choice designs may be purchased at $15 and $20 per set.

The floral designs upon real china are more in border effects than in all over decoration. Therefore, if you are selecting a cheaper set, look well about before buying. A set of delicately bordered, lightweight ware, closely resembling the higher priced china, can be purchased for $35. White and gold sets are again popular, and for general use they are to be commended, as they harmonize with any floral decoration desired and allow great latitude in table napery.

The well appointed table shows a glittering array of cut glass, with its every facet glistening like that of a diamond when the light strikes it.

Exquisitely tinted Bohemian glass is shown in many shades of green, a new rose pink, a rich red and a clear glass with gold tracings, the latter being the most popular for berry and ice cream sets, claret cups and jugs.

Finger bowls have grown smaller. The latest are made of tinted Bohemian glass and have a footed bowl, which rests on a plate to match.

The handsomest china closets are those which are portable and have glass sides. They are made in all forms and sizes and from a great variety of woods, though at present oak and mahogany are the favored ones.

Some are plain and straight, looking very much like a library bookcase, while others are made to fit into a corner.

A novel modification of that pretty idea, the "cup stick," is presented by The Ladies' World, as shown in the second cut. Three "cup sticks" are united at their base, and all are pendant from a square bracket that serves as a support for a handsome vase or other bit of dainty ware.

The square base of the bracket is supported by two triangular back pieces that join at right angles, the edges of both back and shelf being studded with big, round headed black nails. The three round sticks have hooks screwed into their upper ends, which go into screw eyes beneath the shelf, the hooks being bent down, so as to be in no danger of slipping out.

Little brass hooks are screwed into the three sticks at intervals from top to bottom, on which the cups are hung. The sticks are joined at their lower ends by brads and glue, and a hook is placed at the very top.

Wash and peel ten large potatoes, cut them into slices and put them in a stewpan with one large onion, sliced, four ounces of butter and a little pepper, salt and grated nutmeg. Let this stew for three minutes. Then pour over it two quarts of white stock, or liquid in which meat has been boiled, and let the whole simmer until the potatoes are soft. Press them with a wooden spoon through a sieve, return the puree to the soup and stir over the fire until it is quite hot. Add half a pint of new milk or cream, sprinkle a little chopped parsley over the soup and serve.

A HERO OF THE MINE.

He Sought Not Glory, but to Save a Human Life.

Heber Franklin, a young man employed in the Clear Creek mine, is as much a hero as any man who ever braved death on the battlefield, says the Salt Lake Herald. Franklin sought not glory, but to save a human life. There was a fire in the mine. The men were called out. Then they were about to shut off the air in order to stop the flames, when it was learned that a lone miner was working deep in the mine beyond the point where the fire started and was then raging with growing strength. Here is the story of the subsequent events: Foreman Thomas immediately called for volunteers to go with him into the mine to rescue the man. Several attempts were made by different ones, but they were driven back by the flames and the cry of "Powder!" caused a hasty retreat. Finally Heber Franklin, a young man whose work keeps him on the outside, said: "I will go." And accompanying Foreman Thomas he pressed on through the fire and found the man working away tamping a hole, entirely unconscious of the danger threatening him. They succeeded in getting out of the mine safely, when the fan was shut off and the dip closed up. The rescue was an act of great bravery on the part of Franklin, as his work kept him on the outside and he was unacquainted with the exact lay of the land within and the danger of suffocation from black damp was great. He was the only man of the many standing by whose nerve did not desert him. It is stated upon good authority that ten minutes more of lost time would have resulted in the death of the miner who was at work, and possibly a great loss to the company, as the supply of air could not be cut off while there was any hope of rescue, and this would have tended to feed the flames.

Decrease of Births in Europe.

Analysis of the official figures of different European countries, in respect to births and deaths, shows that the country in which the decrease of births is most striking is England, including Wales, whose co-efficient of decrease is 0.305 per one hundred; Scotland, whose mean birth rate is nearly the same, decreases but 0.027 per one hundred; and Ireland, whose birth rate is much smaller, decreases only 0.233 per one hundred. Somewhat after England and Scotland, but before Ireland, are found Holland and Germany, having a co-efficient of decrease of 0.0244 per one hundred, followed closely by Belgium, 0.0239. Then, passing by Greece, comes France, whose natality decreases annually by 0.0179 per one hundred. After France comes Russia, 0.0158; Sweden, 0.0147; Switzerland, 0.0128, and last come, having less than 0.01 per one hundred, Denmark, 0.0078; Austria, 0.0077; Pomerania, 0.0033, and Hungary, 0.0024. On the other hand, an increase is noted in Italy and Spain, while Servia and Norway are nearly stationary.

George Dixon Defeats Lenny.

New York, Nov. 22.—George Dixon, the feather-weight champion, earned a just verdict over Eddie Lenny of Philadelphia at the end of a very fast and scientific glove contest of twenty-five rounds at the Broadway Athletic club last night. Lenny gave a beautiful exhibition of defensive fighting all the way through, but Dixon had a decided advantage because of his aggressiveness and leading.

D. L. Moody May Quit Work.

Northfield, Mass., Nov. 22.—It seems likely that Dwight L. Moody, the famous evangelist, will have to give up his pulpit work. After an examination by his physicians it was stated that he was afflicted with heart trouble akin to fatty degeneration. Mrs. Moody has said she will insist that her husband abandon forever his hard work.

ODD FELLOWS IN SESSION.

Three Hundred Delegates Attend the Meeting at Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 22.—The grand encampment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Illinois was convened in the senate chamber at the state house at 9 o'clock Tuesday with about thirty delegates in attendance. The entire session was spent in the election of officers for the ensuing year. It resulted as follows: Grand Patriarch, C. M. Lytle, Decatur; Grand High Priest, G. A. Seely, Prairie City; Grand Senior Warden, H. W. Penherton, Carbondale; Grand Scribe, H. C. Felman, Salem; Grand Treasurer, J. Ralibla, Alton; Grand Representative, R. A. Smith, Chicago; Grand Junior Warden, Thomas Woods, Princeton.

Gen. John C. Smith, who had been grand scribe for twenty-five consecutive years, refused on account of ill-health to again accept the position. At the conclusion of the election this morning he was presented with a beautiful reclining chair by the twenty-two living grand patriarchs who have been associated with him during his term of office.

The report of the grand treasurer shows that the receipts during the year were $2,576.67, and the disbursements $2,864.68.

Senator Hayward's Condition.

Nebraska City, Neb., Nov. 22.—While physically not much changed, Senator Hayward's mental condition has grown decidedly worse—so much so that his physician is fearful of an inflammation of the lesion in the brain.

Crippled by Rheumatism.

Those who have Rheumatism find themselves growing steadily worse all the while. One reason of this is that the remedies prescribed by the doctors contain mercury and potash, which ultimately intensify the disease by causing the joints to swell and stiffen, producing a severe aching of the bones. S. S. S. has been curing Rheumatism for twenty years—even the worst cases which seemed almost incurable.

Capt. O. E. Hughes, the popular railroad conductor, of Columbus, S. C., had an experience with Rheumatism which convinced him that there is only one cure for that painful disease. He says: "I was a great sufferer from muscular Rheumatism for two years. I could get no permanent relief from any medicine prescribed by my physician. I took about a dozen bottles of your S. S. S. and now I am as well as I ever was in my life. I am sure that your medicine cured me, and I would recommend it to anyone suffering from any blood disease."

Everybody knows that Rheumatism is a diseased state of the blood, and only a blood remedy is the only proper treatment, but a remedy containing potash and mercury only aggravates the trouble.

S.S.S. For Blood

being Purely Vegetable, goes direct to the very cause of the disease and a permanent cure always results. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no potash, mercury or other dangerous minerals.

"May good digestion wait on appetite and health on both."

That sentence from Shakespeare is a genuine benediction of the body. In this as in so many other things the intuition of his mighty mind seems to have fathomed the facts which science has slowly discovered.

Science has shown that disease in many part of the body is almost always accompanied by weakness and failure of the digestive and assimilative organs. Under these conditions the stomach, liver and bowels fail in their appointed work. Then the symptoms of disease appear, often in organs apparently remote from the real cause. Vitality is lowered. There is a dull and sluggish feeling often accompanied by headache. The heart may seem affected. There may be lack of ambition and energy with mental irresolution. With such symptoms as these "delay is dangerous." Such a condition affords the favorite starting point for the symptoms. It is useless to "doctor" for the symptoms. The remedy that reaches the cause must reach the cause of disease. The greatest medicine for all diseases of the stomach and other digestive and nutritive organs is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It restores the appetite, re-establishes a sound digestion, purges out the bilious poisons which infect the blood, carries off waste and builds up sound and healthy tissues. The "Discovery" is not a stimulant. It contains no alcohol or whiskey. No other medicine has so great a record of cures, therefore accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Pills to cure constipation.

Low Down, Short Turn DELIVERY WAGON.

Wagons of this class that we sell are ahead of anything ever used in the city. They are up-to-date in every respect—in usefulness, beauty and durability. One great point with these wagons is the square drop axle, letting the bottom of the box down to within twenty-one inches of the ground.

The short turn is another special feature, allowing one to turn around in an eleven foot alley.

The box is put up in many different styles for convenience as delivery wagons for milk, bakery goods, groceries, laundry, meat or any other business.

NOTICE the new delivery wagon of RICHTER BROS. We sold it to them and it speaks for itself.

BUSINESS MEN ASK IT.

The Fire Police company is asking the common council to provide a combination chemical engine and patrol wagon, and a paid man to serve on it.

The request is reasonable; good business judgment dictated it; and the council should grant it.

The Fire Police company has rendered the people of the city splendid service in the past, and with the new engine could do more than it has done.

The company is composed of twenty business men. Many of them have large property interests in the form of either buildings or mercantile stocks, and all are taxpayers.

Therefore, the request for the engine does not come from irresponsible parties or persons of no business capacity. It comes from twenty up-to-date, progressive merchants, manufacturers and professional men. They know what they are talking about, and the fact that they are giving their time, money and experience to the city shows that they are public spirited and patriotic. They have never asked the city to pay their bills, and do not ask it now. They simply ask the city to provide them with a piece of apparatus that is greatly needed in the fire department, and one paid man. All other expenses will be paid in the future, as in the past—either by the members themselves or with the money paid over by insurance companies.

A plan has been arranged by which the change can be made without increasing the authorized expenses of the department.

The tax payers would not consider it extravagant if the city paid the expenses of the Fire Police company, as the members serve the city well. The tax, per capita, necessary to buy the engine will be small—but a fraction, probably of the amount that each member of the Fire Police company spends annually to replace the clothing he spoils in working for the good of the city at large.

The people of Janesville are indebted to the company in many ways and they will not begrudge anything reasonable that the members may ask.

The membership of the company, alphabetically, and the business interests they represent, is as follows:

- Atwood, Charles, City Ice company.
Bostwick, J. M., J. M. Bostwick & Sons, dry goods.
Burnham, S. C., S. C. Burnham & Co., jewelry and musical goods.
Clemens, F. L., Myers estate, clerk school board.
Evenson, W. E., Prentice & Evenson, manufacturers of medicines, etc.
Farnsworth, F. B., physician.
Hastings, E. E., druggist.
Hastings, F. C., insurance.
Heddes, S. E., leaf tobacco.
McKey, George M., Schaller & McKey, lumber.
Palmer, W. H., physician.
Roberts, E. D., veterinary surgeon.
Stimpson, George D., Archie Reid & Co., dry goods.
Sveens, C. D., Hotel Myers, Stevens & Bates, grocers.
Sutherland, Geo. G., Sutherland & Nolan, attorneys.
Sayles, W. P., Hall, Sayles & Fife, jewelers.
Sheldon, Fred S., A. H. Sheldon & Co., hardware.
Whitton, R. J., Richardson Shoe Co.
Whiting, J. B., Jr., physician.
Whitton, I. F., New Gas Light Co.

A glance at this list carries the conviction that the company is only asking for something that it needs, and should have—that a business proposition has been made by business men.

The democratic slogan in the next campaign will be, it is said, "anti-trust, anti-imperialism, and free silver." Democratic administrations have had a whack at the trusts, but never smothered one. Therefore, their anti-trust cry cannot be anything but clap-trap. "Anti-imperialism" is a high sounding nothing, as it is anti something that has not, does not, and will not exist in this country. Free silver has been discarded once, and will catch no votes. Therefore be ye assured, good people. Republican prosperity will continue. The American voters are intelligent, and they cannot be fooled with "agin-th'-government" theories.

Vice President Garret A. Hobart, whose death occurred yesterday morning, was a typical American, energetic, honest, and enterprising. He was a man of fine abilities, sterling manhood, and pure character. He had been successful in life because of these facts, and his death removes a man whom all admired and for whom no apologies ever had to be made.

Now that none of the fighters are using the newspaper columns. Referee Siler and Promoter O'Rourke are asking the use of a few thousand words each day for an unlimited go to a finish. Why do these fifty gentlemen insist on mutilating the English language, when when they can just as well mutilate each other?

The fire police are the only members of the fire department who serve without pay, and the company has been in existence since 1855—fifty-four years! For over half a century the members have been facing any danger and undergoing any discomfort necessary to the discharge of their self imposed duties. Now they ask for a new piece of apparatus. Are they entitled to it? Certainly. They should have a chemical engine—with solid gold trimmings.

The Fire Police should have a chemical engine and a good one. Money cannot repay the obligation that the people owe the company, and to provide the machine they ask for will only be a recognition of services rendered. Forty engines would not entitle the people to a "receipt in full" for services rendered.

The general opinion seems to be that if the American people had desired to present a residence to a woman who already had residences to rent, they would have done so without the aid or consent of a third person.

The Kentucky Bryanites now admit that a republican governor has been elected by the people of that state, but announce that they "have not yet given up hope"—of thwarting the popular will by acts of lawlessness?

"Aguinaldo" says the press dispatcher, "is at last hemmed in." From this we must naturally infer that up to this time he had only been basted.

D. F. G. Kidder has been appointed as United States consul at Algiers. A Kidder ought to be a good consul.

FIRST RAILROAD IN CHINA.

Went Around the Towns Instead of Through Them.

Mr. Wu, the present Chinese minister at Washington, has many amusing stories to tell of the first railroad ever built in the celestial kingdom, which was constructed under his supervision in the province of Tong Chong, where Li Hung Chang reigned as viceroy, says the Saturday Evening Post. Curiously enough, this road was built without the consent of the emperor, without his knowledge even, the projectors realizing that they must educate their countrymen, from the highest to the lowest, by an object lesson. The road once in operation, they argued, the people, understanding it was a wonderful servant of commerce, and not a great devil, that it carried freight better and quicker than the old-fashioned way, and would bind the uttermost parts of their kingdom together, would no longer oppose it. Its establishment, however was missionary work of a different character, even to so sagacious a diplomat as Mr. Wu, and, though he succeeded in overcoming the prejudice to a certain extent, he failed utterly to gain consent that the road should run through the towns and villages that marked its route. "No, no," said the leading men of those places; "build your road if you must, but keep it away from us—the farther the better." "Well, well," said Wu, "have it as you will. We will run our road at a distance from your limits, but you will regret it for all time; and when you realize what serious harm you have done to your own interests don't come and insist upon our moving the road nearer your borders." The railroad was hardly in operation before the men who had opposed it began to change its route that it might come by their towns and cities; but the management was obdurate, and Tong Chung received a most wholesome lesson.

Sues for Seasickness.

Chicago Inter Ocean: Mrs. Sarah L. Ungerman, who has filed a suit against the Hamburg-American Steamship company for damages for seasickness, is from Missouri. She says she paid for a comfortable trip on the steamship across the ocean, but she didn't get it. She estimates the damage to her health, comfort and dignity at $5,000. Mrs. Ungerman is specific in her charges. She says she was guaranteed four good meals a day aboard the steamer going to Europe, but on account of the peculiar antics of the ship in trying to find the bottom with her nose and stand on her stern, she was unable to eat, and the display of fare was tantalizing. Insult was added to injury, she says, when, in the midst of her suffering, the captain prescribed salt pork as a remedy. Steamship managers are said to be worrying over the suit, as an adverse decision would establish a very dangerous precedent, and would probably result in driving them out of business.

Fatal Mining Accidents.

Fewer deaths are caused by mining accidents now than in 1855, although at the present time there are two and a half times as many people employed underground.

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING.

Some Notes of Interest Concerning the Unquiet Sex.

With the volunteer troops which Canada recently sent to South Africa to help in the war against the Boers went Miss Georgina Pope, who will act as chief nurse for the regiment. Miss Pope is a sister of the undersecretary of state for Canada. She is a nurse of wide experience, having been engaged in the work for 12 years. She was graduated from Bellevue hospital, New York, where recently she took a post-graduate course. All Canada is ringing with her praise.

Mrs. Roy Waldensford Kersey is known in California as the "Lady of the Daffodils." She is perhaps the most extensive grower of daffodils in the country, the sale of cut flowers and bulbs yielding a handsome income. She has a charming country place at Haywards, overlooking San Francisco bay, where her gardens and conservatories are located.

Another writer from the ranks of society will soon demand recognition from the literary world. Miss Hay, the daughter of Secretary Hay, is engaged in writing a novel which will deal with the social life of Washington. Miss Hay, who made her debut in society at the national capital a year ago, is an attractive young woman and is said to have inherited not a little of her father's literary genius.

Two young women, both college graduates, successfully conduct a market gardening and poultry farm at Compton, R. L. from which they supply the Newport epicures dainties and for which they get fancy prices.

Two nieces of the president, Miss Grace McKinley and Miss Ida Barber will enliven the White House with their presence during the coming winter, which promises to be an unusually gay season in Washington society.

The Princess of Wales, who, by virtue of her position, is the head of English society, is reported as saying: "Of all the American girls that I have seen presented in the course of my life the most beautiful is Miss Louise Grace. Her beauty, her charm of manner and her carriage are alike exceptional." Miss Grace is the youngest daughter of ex-Mayor William R. Grace of New York.

The Association of Collegiate Alumnae has recently been in session in Chicago. The association has a membership of over 2,000 women, which includes graduates from 19 colleges and universities. It is organized for the purpose of advancing the educational interests of its members and for broadening the opportunities for women to receive the benefits of collegiate training.

Mrs. Mary Grinnell Mears, who was recently re-elected president of the New York Assembly of Mothers, a branch of the National Congress of Mothers, combines personal charm with executive ability, and it is largely through her efforts that the assembly has reached its present prominence.

A Milwaukee young woman has received a commission to paint a miniature of the dowager empress of Russia. She is Miss Emma Siboni, the daughter of Erich Siboni, a noted Danish pianist who in former years had been the music master of the dowager empress.

Mrs. Mary Lowe Dickinson has been appointed by the United States government as a special agent to the Paris exposition. Her specific work is confined to social economy.

Miss Isabel McCall, a pianist of some note, has started in New York what she terms a "school of accompanying," which is declared to be the only one of exactly its kind in the world.

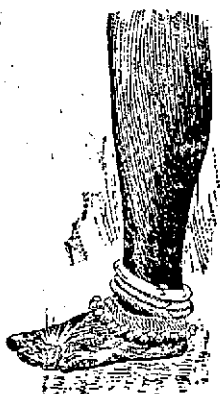

Mrs. Clio Hinton Humecker, who has just returned to America after three years of study in Europe, has attained high rank among sculptors and is accumulating a snug little fortune by her clever work. She is the modeler of those dainty bronze figures that have of late become the fashion in ornament.

Amateur gardening by women is one of the latest fads in Europe.

In India, where shoes and stockings are not considered necessary in native society, the ladies have gone further in the matter of jewelry than their more civilized sisters. They wear rings on their toes, with what dazzling effect may be seen from the picture.

Friends of the late Miss Winnie Davis are actively pushing a movement for the establishment of a Winnie Davis School of History at Gaffney, S. C., to be a branch of the educational work of Limestone college.

Miss Cecilia Beaux of Philadelphia has been appointed one of the jury to select pictures for the exhibition of fine arts of the United States at the Paris exposition.

ANNETTE CRAWFORD

COLD TO ORDER.

Some Ways of Producing Artificial Low Temperatures.

In the line of refrigeration on the rail, the newest and cleverest invention is a car that by the motion of its own wheels, compresses ammonia gas to a liquid, which, in expanding again through pipes, produces the cold required to preserve the perishable products transported in the vehicle. What the newly-discovered liquid air may accomplish in the branch of enterprise here discussed, no man can say, though astonishing things are predicted for it, but already cold in this intensely concentrated form is on the market and may be bought by the gallon. Very possibly, in the near future carts may go from door to door in cities with cans of cold—i. e., liquid air put up in suitable tins—depositing full receptacles each morning for the day's supply, and taking away the "empties." A little of the stuff in the family refrigerator will keep the provisions sweet, while what remains may be utilized for cooling the air of the house, a spoonful being deposited here and there in a saucer. An inventor has recently devised a scheme for sprinkling a town with the help of balloons, which carry up into the air long hoses, connected with fire-plugs on the ground. This is for the purpose of engendering coolness; and the same object is sought, by another genius, who proposes to erect in various parts of the city very tall skeleton towers, to the tops of which large bombs filled with carbonic acid, will be run up for explosion by an electric spark. Of course, the carbonic acid, expanding in the form of vapor, will chill the surrounding atmosphere, thus giving relief to the heat-oppressed community below. An idea that is even now used in many factories to cool the air in the buildings, is to throw a spray of cold water into a room until the air is supersaturated, and then to force the air thus cooled through the outer rooms.—Boston Transcript.

Feeble Kidneys.

In health the kidneys strain all impurities from the blood. Diseased, they allow the poisons to accumulate. Weak kidneys come from weak stomachs. Build up the stomach with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and the kidneys will be as good as new. The Bitters also cures constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, nervousness, and general debility. See that a Private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

DEEP SORROW FELT AT WASHINGTON

DEATH OF VICE PRESIDENT DEPLORED BY THE PEOPLE.

President McKinley Issues a Proclamation Reciting the Public Services of Hobart Deceased—Orders a Display of Flags at Half Mast on All Public Buildings.

Washington, Nov. 22.—As soon as the news of the death of Vice-President Hobart reached the white house, the flag over the north portico was dropped to half-mast, and as fast as telephone messages could be sent around the city the flags on other government buildings were similarly lowered. The white house was ordered closed officially for the day, and Attorney-General Griggs was dispatched to Paterson to make the necessary arrangements for the participation by the president and his cabinet in the funeral.

The cabinet assembled at the usual hour, but of course transacted no business, and callers at the white house were turned away by the doorkeepers. President McKinley was deeply affected by the news, for between the two men there existed a genuine friendship. Mr. Hobart was a constant caller at the white house, and it may be doubted if any member of the president's cabinet, or indeed any one else, with the possible exception of Senator Hanna, had received so much of the confidence of the president, and was so fully trusted by him as was Garret A. Hobart.

So it happened that aside from the purely official arrangements for the funeral, and the ordinary expressions of formal grief, the president was notably overwhelmed with sadness. He had hoped until the last, against the declarations of the medical men, that Mr. Hobart might be on the ticket with him next year and be a member of the new administration.

This induced the president to send his own physician, Dr. Dixey, to Paterson some time ago, but his confidential report was that the vice-president could not possibly recover.

The death of the vice-president does not affect in any way the executive department of the government, for under the constitution the vice-president has no executive duties whatever to perform and his death does not create a vacancy which can be filled either by appointment or election.

If President McKinley had died Mr. Hobart would have succeeded him, but otherwise his sole duty was president of the senate, and that is almost an honorary position.

Now that Mr. Hobart is dead John Hay, secretary of state, would succeed to the presidency by law in case of the death of President McKinley, but Secretary Hay does not become vice-president, that office being permanently vacant during the rest of his administration.

During the afternoon the president issued a proclamation reciting the services of the deceased statesman to the nation, and expressing his deep grief at the personal loss sustained in the death of his colleague. The proclamation concludes: "In sorrowing testimony of the loss which has fallen upon the country, I direct that on the day of the funeral the executive offices of the United States shall be closed and all stations of the army and navy shall display the national flag at half-mast and that representatives of the United States in foreign countries shall pay appropriate tribute to the illustrious dead for a period of thirty days."

Office Will Remain Vacant. Washington, Nov. 22.—By the death

NOTHING BUT FACTS

No Deception Used in Talking About Morrow's Kid-ne-oids.

The Arguments in Their Favor Come From People Who Have Tested Their Merits.

There is no deception in anything we publish about Morrow's Kid-ne-oids. All our statements are facts and are from people right here in Wisconsin. People in all walks of life are using and recommending Kid-ne-oids because they cure backache, nervousness, sleeplessness and general debility in cases where other remedies have failed.

Mrs. P. Jenkins, 618 Broad street, Beloit, Wisc., says: "I take pleasure in recommending Morrow's Kid-ne-oids to any person suffering from kidney backache. A sample of Kid-ne-oids used according to directions removed the pain from the small of my back and I have not been troubled with backache since."

Morrow's Kid-ne-oids are not pills but yellow tablets and sell at fifty cents a box at all drug stores and The People's Drug Store.

BULLER'S WORK OUTLINED.

THREE DIVISIONS PLANNED.

Strong Force Will Advance in the Direction of Ladysmith—Boer Strength a Problem—Communication with Estcourt Is Interrupted.

New York Mourns for Hobart. New York, Nov. 22.—New York is in mourning for Vice-President Hobart. His death, though not unexpected, was a shock, and it called out public sympathy and visible evidence of the esteem in which the vice-president was held. Flags were lowered to half-mast all over the city, this mark of respect and mourning not being restricted in the least to public or semi-public buildings.

Sketch of Mr. Hobart's Life.

Garret Augustus Hobart was eminently successful both in business and politics. His reputation as a mine of affairs and as one of the shrewdest business men in the country was perhaps greater than his reputation as a political leader and a statesman until his election to the vice-presidency three years ago. Mr. Hobart was born in 1844 at Long Branch, N. J. His ancestors on his father's side were English and on his mother's side Dutch. Thirty-three years ago he was graduated from Rutgers college, and began teaching school. Three months later he entered upon the study of law with Socrates Tuttle, a prominent lawyer in Passaic county, New Jersey. In 1869 he was admitted to the bar and the same year he married the daughter of Mr. Tuttle. In 1871 he was made city attorney of Paterson and in 1872 was elected to the state assembly, of which body he was chosen speaker in the following year.

At the end of his second year in the assembly Mr. Hobart retired to devote himself to the law and to the enormous business interests with which he had become identified. But the demand of his party would not admit of his remaining long in private life and in 1876 he was elected to the state senate, of which body he was chosen president in 1881.

From 1880 to 1891 he was at the head of the state republican organization of New Jersey, and, as such, planned some of the most brilliant campaigns conducted by his party in the state.

From 1884 until 1896 he was a member of the national republican executive committee and had much to do with the management of the national campaigns during those twelve years. At the time of his election as vice-president he was a director in no less than sixty different companies. Through his business connections and his law practice he built up a large fortune. After his nomination and election to the vice-presidency on the ticket headed by Mr. McKinley he went to Washington and took up his residence in the old Cameron mansion, adjoining the site of the historic old Seward house, on Lafayette square, where Blaine died.

Mr. Hobart left but one child, Garret A. Hobart, Jr., a boy of 14. Fanny, a girl of 22, died in 1895, in Italy, while there with her parents.

Mount for Vice-President.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—A well organized movement is on foot to make Gov. James A. Mount the vice-presidential candidate on the republican ticket next year. His friends say he was elected by the biggest vote ever given a gubernatorial candidate in Indiana, and made one of the most successful campaigns that has ever been known in the state.

GRANGE OPPOSES TRUSTS.

National Committee Urges That They Should Be Crushed.

Springfield, Ohio, Nov. 22.—The subject of trusts came up at the meeting of the National Grange Tuesday. J. J. Woodman, chairman of the executive committee, said that every effort should be made to crush them out, for they could not be controlled. "It is treason," he said, "to say they cannot or must not be crushed out."

A motion to appoint a historian for the National Grange was lost, as it was deemed unnecessary to have one.

"Resolutions of sympathy with the family of Vice-President Hobart in their sorrow at his death were adopted. Washington was selected as the place of the next annual meeting. Resolutions were adopted favoring the construction of the Nicaragua canal, and a ship canal between the Mississippi river and the great lakes.

The following officers were elected: Worthy master, Aaron Jones, Indiana; treasurer, Mrs. E. C. McDowell, Ohio; secretary, John Bumbell, Washington, D. C.; executive committee, J. J. Woodman and E. B. Norris.

Prohibition Fight in Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 22.—A vote will be taken today in the general assembly

London, Nov. 22.—The war in the Transvaal has now resolved itself into three distinct campaigns, Gen. Buller being the connecting link between the several British columns, but he has so far attached himself to no particular one.

The three columns now on the eye of an advance, with the latest estimate of the number of men in each, are as follows:

Natal, Gen. Clery, 13,000 men, composed of members of the army corps, the border regiment, and the naval militia. It will advance in the direction of Ladysmith, and probably be occupied in fighting its way through the Boers preliminary to the coming of a stronger force to relieve Gen. White.

Central Cape Colony, Gen. Gatacre, with 5,000 men, to advance from East London and clear out the Boers from Stormberg Junction, Burgersdorp and Aliwal North.

Western frontier, Gen. Methuen, with 14,000 men, advancing from De Aar and Orange river bridge upon Kimberley.

Behind both Gen. Methuen and Gen. Gatacre fresh re-enforcements will follow closely.

The strength of the Boer forces available to meet the British columns is doubtful, but the following is believed the most probable:

In Natal, Gen. Joubert, if he has really started south, has from 15,000 to 18,000.

At Ladysmith he has at least 10,000, and in central Cape Colony the Boers have a total of from 2,000 to 5,000, and on the western frontier Kimberley is surrounded by 6,000 and Mafeking by 5,000 under Cronje.

A large Boer force, probably Joubert's, is reported as marching upon the Mooi river south of Estcourt. The road followed leads direct from Ladysmith through Weenen to Weston. By avoiding Estcourt he can destroy the Mooi river bridge and impede Gen. Clery's advance.

Gen. Buller reports that he has received a dispatch from Col. Baden-Powell, dated at Mafeking Nov. 6, saying: "All well here. We have had a few successful sorties. Our loss is two officers and seventeen men killed, and four officers and twenty-nine men wounded. The enemy's loss is heavy. His numbers are decreasing, but his guns remain and shell us, keeping out of the range of our small guns. Have had no news from the outside since Nov. 29."

The government has received advices from Col. Royston, commandant of the volunteers at Ladysmith, under date of Nov. 16, saying that "all the volunteers and police are well, and that there are plentiful supplies for man and horse. All was quiet Wednesday and Thursday."

Picket Firing at Mooi River.

Mooi River, Nov. 22.—British pickets have been in touch with the Boers at different positions around Mooi river today and exchanging shots. All the farmers who have come into the village say farms have been looted within three miles of here. The Boers are reported in force on the highlands between Estcourt and this place.

Estcourt Is Cut Off.

Durban, Nov. 22.—Communication with Estcourt is interrupted.

British Reoccupy Naauwpoort.

Cape Town, Nov. 22.—The British troops reoccupied Naauwpoort on Sunday.

Not Destroying Mines.

London, Nov. 22.—The Standard and Diggers' News of Nov. 13 denies that the Transvaal government is destroying mines. On the contrary, the mines are being worked and the gold utilized to defend the independence of the Transvaal. It will be repaid at the end of the war. European shareholders may feel confident that no mines will be ruined.

Invasion Against Orders.

Cape Town, Nov. 22.—It is announced from Naauwpoort that the Boers are repairing the bridges previously destroyed by them. This, according to the Cape Times, is because the Boer invasion of Cape Colony was against orders. The same authority asserts that no defense of Bloemfontein is intended.

Quiet at Colerburg.

Naauwpoort, Nov. 22.—The Boers have moved their camp to Palmietfontein. All is quiet at Colerburg. The British residents have not been molested.

GRAIN-O! GRAIN-O!

Remember the name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it. Grain-O is made of pure grain; it aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and the children as well as the adults

TEXAS TOWN BOMBARDED.

Clash of Negro Troops and the Residents of Rio Grande City.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 22.—The trouble between the United States colored troops at Fort Ringgold, Texas, and the citizens of Rio Grande City, which adjoins the fort, broke out again Monday night and for nearly two hours a terrific battle was waged between the opposing forces.

The soldiers were armed with Krag-Jorgensen rifles, and the bullets literally riddled the adobe buildings of the little town. The women and children of the place fled in terror to the chaparral.

The armed force of 200 citizens poured volley after volley into the garison buildings, but their fire apparently was badly directed in the darkness, as none of the soldiers was injured.

Post Commander Babottom brought a Gatling gun into play, and, directing its fire in the direction from which the volleys from the citizens were coming, succeeded in quelling them. One citizen of Rio Grande City was wounded. This is the only known casualty.

Gov. Sayers wired the secretary of war, urging that he direct an immediate and searching investigation into the affair, and also that he issue an immediate order for the removal of the troops. He wired Gen. McKibben to the same effect.

Telegrams from Brownsville, Rio Grande City and Laredo state that United States troops at those points have been ordered to hasten overland as rapidly as possible to Fort Ringgold, and also that Gen. Curry has ordered all the Texas rangers on the border to Ringgold.

WILD RUMOR AT LEXINGTON.

Report That Armed Convicts Will Protect Election Commissioners.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 22.—A rumor is afloat that the Goebel men will arm the convicts in the Frankfort penitentiary with revolvers, and if trouble is started in Frankfort when the official count is made by the state election commissioners the convicts will be turned loose to protect the commissioners and the Goebel leaders.

The latest figures give Taylor a plurality of 2,232, and this cannot be overcome without the commissioners throwing out some of the counties. Gov. Bradley has been in frequent conference with his adjutant-general and his colonels of militia, and he will have the state troops ready for any emergency.

Articles of Agreement Signed.

New York, Nov. 22.—Champion James Jeffries and ex-Champion James J. Corbett are matched to fight for the heavy-weight championship of the world. They will meet on or about Sept. 15, 1900, either for twenty-five rounds or a finish fight. By that date prize fighting may be barred in New York, and the finish-fight clause has reference to Carson City or any other place of the kind. All the points of importance about the match were quickly settled save one, and that was concerning the referee. George Siler of Chicago is not wanted by Corbett or his manager, Considine. Brady insisted on Siler. Finally as a compromise the question of a referee was put over until the club articles are signed. Bids from athletic clubs wishing to pull off the fight will be received up to May 1. The winner will take 75 per cent of the purse, the loser 25 per cent. The Marquis of Queensberry rules will govern and be interpreted by the referee when chosen.

To Bring Home Maine's Dead.

Washington, Nov. 22.—After a careful consideration of the matter in all its phases, the navy department has determined that the preservation of the bodies of the enlisted men who lost their lives in the destruction of the Maine, and are now lying in Cristobal Colon cemetery, Havana, makes it necessary that they be moved from that place. Accordingly orders were issued for the disinterment of the remains of the Maine's dead and their shipment to the United States. They will be reinterred in the Arlington National cemetery near Washington.

THE ills of women overshadow their whole lives. Some women are constantly getting medical treatment and are never well. "A woman best understands women's ills," and the women who consult Mrs. Pinkham find in her counsel practical assistance.

Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.

MRS. MABEL GOOD, Correctionville, Ia., tells how Mrs. Pinkham saved her life. She says:

"I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me. I can recommend it as one of the best medicines on earth for all women's ills. I suffered for two years with female weakness and at last became bedfast. Three of our best doctors did me no good so I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking a few bottles of your medicine, I was able to do all my housework. I know that your medicine raised me from a bed of sickness and perhaps death, and am very thankful for what it has done for me. I hope that every suffering woman may be persuaded to try your medicine."

Get Mrs. Pinkham's advice as soon as you begin to be puzzled. The sick headaches and dragging sensation come from a curable cause. Write for help as soon as they appear.

Mrs. DOLE STANLEY, Campbellsburg, Ind., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I was troubled with sick headache and was so weak and nervous, I could hardly go. A friend called upon me one evening and recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, saying that she knew that it would cure me. I then sent for your medicine and after taking five bottles of it, I was entirely cured. I cannot praise it enough."

The Price of a Suit

Of clothes is not always the true expression of its worth. It is equally true that a really good suit of clothes cannot be sold for less than a certain sum. If you pay less you get less, and when you get down to a certain point what you get is worth nothing and your money might as well be thrown in the street.

The price range is adapted to every purse, and each price represents just what twice the amount would buy of made to measure clothes. In buying these garments you get sterling value for your money, and the price is held down just as low as good clothes can be made for. If you seek to save a few dollars by cheaper garments, you get worthless ones and all is wasted. We know this so perfectly well that without hesitation we say that we will give you back your money if you are dissatisfied.

Suits, $10 to $25. Overcoats, $10 to $40.

ted States We have a good supply of this celebrated "King" Apple, which we will sell by the barrel at lower prices than they can be bought for at wholesale in Chicago. Other choice varieties of hard winter apples which we have for sale by the barrel are:

Northern Spies,

Spitzenbergs, Baldwins,

Tallman Sweets,

Rhode Island Greenings,

Golden Russets.

This market heretofore has been so flooded with early picked, wormy Apples of poor keeping qualities, shipped in from Michigan, that many people have become discouraged from buying Apples by the barrel. We feel confident that an inspection of our stock will convince them that we have the quality of fruit they have been looking for.
